

Absolutely No Doubt

Absolute Athlete . . . in Mind and Body

Pedigree. Conformation. Disposition. Success in the show pen. Putting it all together in one individual is every horseman's goal, but, getting it done is the challenge.

Absolutely No Doubt (Absolute Investment X Shez Got Good Style by Zippos Mr Good Bar) is one of those special individuals that puts it all together. His pedigree reads like a "who's who" of Quarter Horse World with Hall of Famers in both sire and dam lines. His conformation is impeccable, with the balance and bone structure you would expect of Absolute Bloodlines. His disposition is beyond reproach, winning admirers of anyone who comes in contact with him. But most importantly, Roany puts it all together successfully in the show pen – in Western Pleasure and in Performance Halter.

To date, Absolutely No Doubt (Roany) is leading the nation by a commanding margin for the AQHA Honor Roll title in both the Open and Junior Divisions in Performance Halter Stallions. For co-owners Dan McWhirter Quarter Horses and Correll Buckhalter, running back for the Philadelphia Eagles, Roany's success in Performance Halter and in Western Pleasure is gratifying, but not a surprise given his balance, conformation and athleticism.

"We're particularly proud of Roany's accomplishments and of his magnetism," says Carol McWhirter. "He develops a fan club wherever he goes. People love him because of his kind, docile nature. He just wants to be good. His laid-back attitude makes him easy to show in both western pleasure and halter."

The McWhirters are also excited about his future in the breeding shed after "test-breeding" two mares. Both of his 2008 foals are roan and obviously Absolute Bloodlines in conformation, movement and mind. They're looking forward to more foals in 2009.

"The colts look exceptional- just like duplicates of their sire," says Carol. "In the 'sire-line' tradition of The Investor and Absolute Investment, both are proven to be pre-potent breeding horses. From what we can see so far, Absolutely No Doubt is following in this same 'sire-line' tradition."

Absolutely No Doubt will be shown at the AQHA World Show and the balance of the year under the guidance of halter trainer Dave Williamson, Vine Grove, Ken. At that time Roany will go back in performance training with Brad and Vicki Pitts, of P5 Equestrian, Evansville, Ind, to complete his AQHA Championship.

In addition, Absolutely No Doubt will stand at the P5 Equestrian, Henderson, Kentucky facility and is enrolled in the KY Breeders Incentive Program. For more information on Absolutely No Doubt, including his "who's who" pedigree, go to the Web site www.absolutebloodlines.com.

Earlier this year, under the guidance of Brad and Vicki Pitts, P5 Equestrian, Absolutely No Doubt quickly accumulated 20 western pleasure points. Under halter trainer Dave Williamson in 2008, Roany has earned 15 Grand Championships, 6 Reserve Championships, including a Congress Reserve Championship.

Absolutely No Doubt's co-owner, Correll Buckhalter, brings a National Football League connection to the AQHA show pen. A former Nebraska Cornhusker and current running back for the Philadelphia Eagles, Buckhalter is fulfilling his dream as a member of American Quarter Horse Association and as a breeder of Absolute Bloodlines.
