

Absolutely Passionate

Performance is the focus and the passion at Dan McWhirter Quarter Horses. For the past 30 years, Dan and Carol McWhirter have bred, produced and raised many of the industry's best performance horses. Now they have built the Absolutely best genetics for performance in their two stallions, Absolute Investment and Absolute Asset.

Their herd improvement program has laid a foundation for the modern pleasure horse. Many of today's most successful performers in pleasure, western riding and other events can be traced to either a mare or stallion that was bred, born and/or raised by the McWhirters. Now training in this program is Dan Prouhet. Prouhet was the 2004 NSBA Limited Open Rider of the Year.

On their 1,200-acre working farm in Doniphan, Nebraska, the McWhirters have created a clear blueprint for breeding the "ideal" performance horse. They want a horse with a:

- Strong, driving hock.
- Clean, cadenced gait rhythm that is flat-kneed.
- Correct length of stride with natural suspension at the lope.
- Upright wither, which creates a level neck and a head that does not bob.

Building on a Genetic Legacy

The McWhirter's current generation of top performance sires is the legacy of a solid herd improvement program that spans some 30 years and features some of the best-known stallions in the industry, including The Big Investment, Zippos Mr Good Bar, The Investor and Good Asset.

This genetic legacy has produced a new generation of top performance horse sires. The McWhirters presently stand two outstanding Quarter Horse stallions, including:

• Absolute Investment (The Investor x Investment Ms by The Big Investment): The McWhirters believe this stallion — who is 62.5 percent related to The Investor — exemplifies their "Designer Gene" horse.

Born in 1995, Absolute Investment is a sorrel standing 15.2 hands. He earned 62 AQHA open Western pleasure points and $9,754 in futurity and AQHA Incentive Fund money. He was the 1999 National Western Stock Show champion, the 1999 Circuit Pre-Denver Shows Champion and the 1998 Nebraska Silver Classic Junior Western pleasure champion.

Absolute Investment now has 125 registered foals, with 28 performers. He is producing offspring with laidback dispositions, early maturity and good bone. His foals have earned almost 600 open performance points and 17 performance ROMs in the show arena. One of his sons, Absolute Option, won the 2005 Congress Junior Western Riding Championship prior to performing at the 2005 World Show. Bred by the McWhirters, Absolute Option is owned by Polo Ridge Farms in Monmouth, Oregon.

"He's from Absolute Investment's first foal crop, and we think he exemplifies what we breed for because he's got great pleasure horse movement with self-carriage, wonderful balance and a natural ability to change leads," Carol said.

• Absolute Asset (Good Asset x Investment Ms by The Big Investment): The McWhirters have high hopes for this young stallion's offspring.

"His babies are beautiful," Carol said. "They are real straight legged and they've got The Big Investment tall wither. He's 16.1 hands and puts a lot of stretch on his babies. And he's passing on his looks. He is so handsome. People come in to see him and it's just like 'Wow.'"

The McWhirters think this 1996 bay stallion combines the very best of their genetics program. "With Good Asset as his father and Investment Ms as his mother, he's destined to become a great sire," Carol said.

Dan Prouhet, full-time trainer for McWhirter Quarter Horses, makes his show debut on Absolutely No Doubt, a big, strong roan jointly owned by Dan McWhirter and Correll Buckhalter.

Boyd Gaming Winner

Again this year, Boyd Gaming is giving away one $500 bank card daily for the "Run of the Day" through November 18 to an amateur exhibitor or open owner. The Boyd Gaming winner for November 14 was Terry Stuart Forst of Waurika, Oklahoma, who owns Seven S Babe that was exhibited by Chris Littlefield in senior heading.

WEDNESDAY'S WINNER

Congratulations to Donna Arnett of Leander, Texas. She correctly identified CC Surprise as the horse that won at least one pleasure driving world championship every year from 1991 to 1996. And in 1992 and 1993, the mare won both amateur and open titles.

Owned by Joyce Saul of Des Arc, Arkansas, the 1985 bay mare is by Snow Surprise and out of Bye Bye Blackbird by Doe Bowman (TB).

She has produced 10 foals, including six performers with 13 Registers of Merit. Matter of fact her son, Cee My Surprise, a 2002 gelding by Sky Blue Walker, qualified for this year's amateur pleasure driving and junior pleasure driving.
